Welcome to Colin Cowie Lifestyle.

Over the last three decades Colin Cowie Lifestyle (CCL) has grown and evolved to become the premiere wedding design and production company, for brides and grooms. While you may know us for our more publicized grand-scale weddings, CCL also produces numerous weddings of all sizes and scale for couples worldwide. We plan each and every wedding with the same sensibility we have become known for: no detail is too small, no request too large.

Colin Cowie

For years, Colin Cowie Lifestyle has helped brides around the world find the perfect location or destination for their wedding. We facilitate the entire process by providing one-stop production services that encompass everything from initial concept design and presentation to production implementation and run-of-show.

CCL has designed and produced a variety of weddings ranging from intimate gatherings for 50 to large-scale productions for over 1500. We strive to create a day or weekend that is meaningful and engaging and we would be delighted to help you with your wedding planning.

We aim to set the benchmark in our industry. We provide unparalleled services that are comprised of the most talented, dedicated, creative and passionate individuals with one common goal: ensuring your wedding is memorable, meaningful and magical.

CCL offers the following services for your wedding:

Venue Research & Contracting:

Based on your wedding criteria (number of guests, budget, event type – seated dinner, buffet dinner, cocktail party, etc.), CCL will research suitable venues for you and provide you with a comprehensive dossier of available venues and pricing. We will also arrange tours of the venues for you and negotiate the contract on your behalf once you have selected a suitable venue.

Initial Concept & Design:

This is where the fun really begins. First we listen to you – what is your dream? What is most important to you? What do you want to convey to your guests? What do you want the day to look like? Based on what we learn from you, Colin and our design team will start by creating a mood board. The mood board will establish an overall look and feel for your wedding, once you approve a design concept we can begin the detailed planning phase. This is where we flesh out every detail. The concept and design phase concludes with a detailed Creative Presentation; this is much more than a “sample table”. The creative presentation allows you to experience what you are going to see, touch, taste, smell and hear at your wedding. We do this to ensure that before you walk through the front door, you will have an excellent idea of exactly what your wedding experience will be.

Event Coordination & On-site Management:

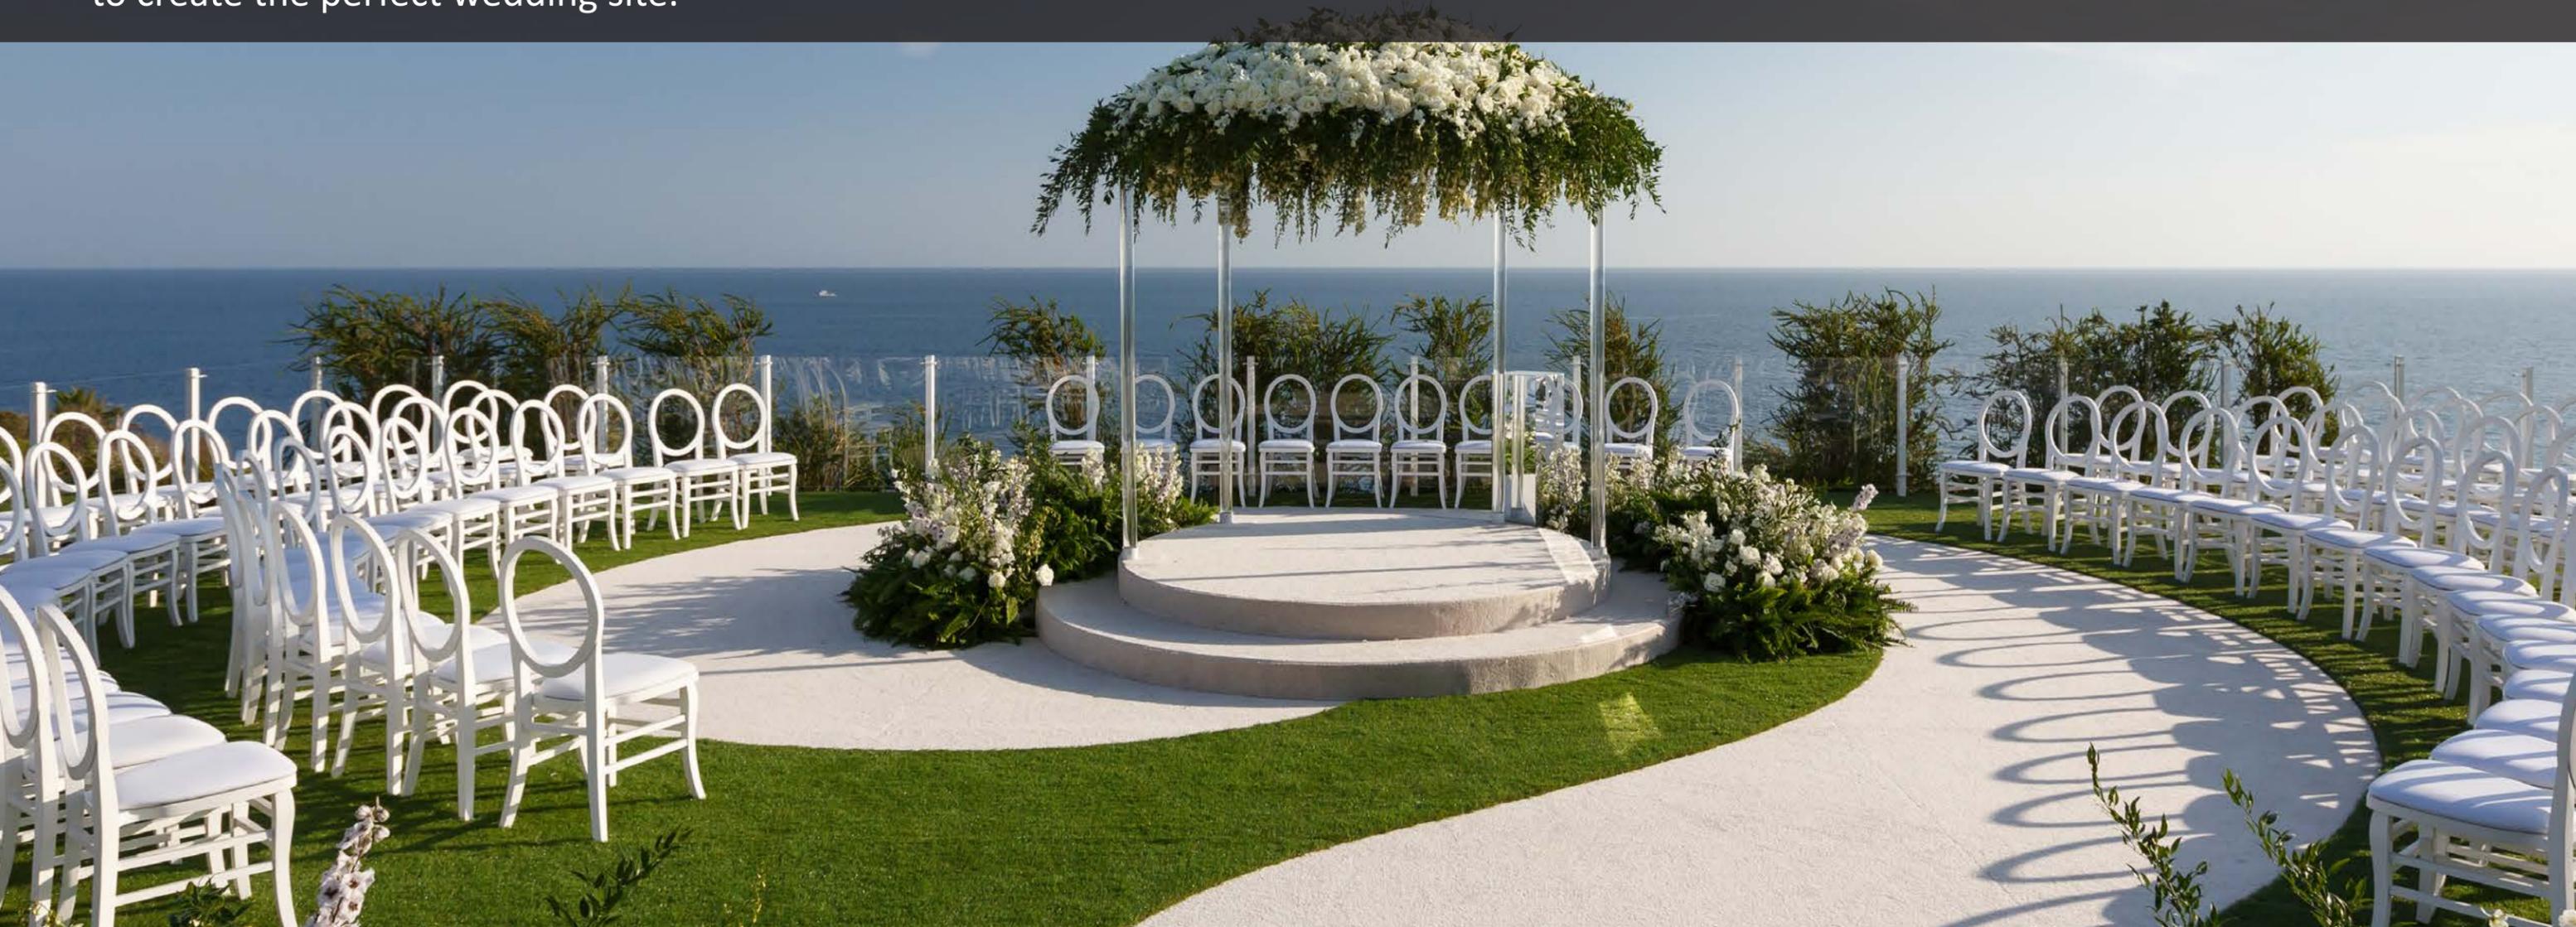

CCL will provide all the necessary staffing to make sure your special day runs smoothly and that there are no surprises – at least no unintended ones! Our managers and producers have over 100 years of combined experience managing and executing weddings. We will oversee every aspect of your wedding from the time the first vendors begin their load-in to the time the last person leaves and the venue is handed back over to the owner.

Guest List Management:

We know that managing all of your guests is a time consuming job, which is why CCL offers full service guest list management as an option. All you have to do is provide us with who your guests are and we take it from there – invitation distribution, RSVP management and all guest communications. We are a full-service concierge for you and your guests.

Wedding Website:

CCL can also assist in creating wedding websites for you and your guests, with additional charge. Our designers and developers work together to create the perfect wedding site.

CCL will become your partner from the creative process to completion. We offer couples the option of working directly with Colin under our Signature services or with our experienced and seasoned producers under the Team Cowie name. Whichever is right for you, rest assured that the experience will be exceptional in every sense of the word.

For Team Cowie Productions, an 18% management fee is applied to the overall cost of the wedding components we manage. For Signature Colin, the management fee is 20% of the overall cost of the wedding components we manage plus a design fee for Colin's time and creativity. A minimum fee does apply on smaller weddings. Our fee includes the services of an executive producer, lead designer and an associate producer.

We are often asked, “How much will my wedding cost?” The short answer is, as little, or as much as your budget allows. If you have not set a budget we can help you build one around the particulars of your wedding and your expressed wishes. The overall cost of the wedding can vary quite a bit depending on the degree of detail, number of days and your specific selections within each category of services.

A good general minimum budget estimate for most services typically included in a wedding (i.e. food, beverage, venue fees, photography, entertainment etc.) ranges from $1,500 per guest for a single-day Team Cowie Event to $3,000 per guest for a single day Signature Cowie Event. These amounts will vary depending on your site selection, guest count and other selections. Multiple-day and destination weddings are quoted once additional details are provided.

“Colin, Not only were we totally blown away by your creative vision and flow of everything .. but you! Krista and Laine are all so wonderful and truly guided us along with so much love and compassion. That is a massive part of this process and something that was so important to both of us. As it is truly one of the most important days of a persons life. I can't begin to thank you enough for that, from every inch of my heart I am so incredibly grateful.”

-Sarah

“You are clearly a Knight in shining armor! You have taken my Cinderella dream and turned it in to a reality. For a long time I had a vision about the perfect, timeless fairytale wedding for our precious daughter. I knew that it would take more than brilliant creativity. I knew that it would take more than extraordinary execution. I knew that it would require expertise from someone who had the experience to pull my wild dreams together. You are that man! You have done it all. We are eternally grateful to you, Erin, and her team for guiding us, encouraging us, and supporting us throughout this fantastic unforgettable journey that culminated in the most perfect wedding I could've ever imagined.”

-Joyce

“I really don't know where to begin... This has been one of the most amazing experiences that I have ever had. I knew when I met you that we were “cut from the same cloth”... I knew that everything you did was a combination of style, grace, impeccable taste and FUN. What I could not predict was that every moment would be more perfect than the next, and that we would become friends.

You made Rebecca's wedding a true labor of love. There was not one element that did not “WOW” all of us. From the design to the incredible food to each perfectly placed flower... you are a creative genius. The only reason I am not completely depressed is because I know for you and me – this is just the beginning... thank you for turning our dream into a reality and for creating magic!”

“Team Cowie, I don’t have the words to express the gratitude that I have for the unbelievable feat that you pulled off in seven days. I keep thinking of words to describe the experience, but remarkable, unreal, incredible, spectacular and about 1,000 others all just don’t seem to do it justice. I had the most amazing time of my life and I know everyone else feels the exact same way. Thank you one million times for giving me such joy and happiness.”
